MUSKETAQUID

*Beneath low hills in broad interval
Through which at will our Indian rivulet winds.*

TIDE IN

TWO RIVERS.

*Thou in thy narrow banks art pent:
The stream I love unbounded goes
Through flood and sea and firmament;
Through light, through life, it forward flows.*

THE SPHINX.

—o—

*The sphinx is drowsy,
Her wings are furled;
Her ear is heavy,
She broods on the world.*

THE SPHINX

SEA SHORE.

*Behold the Sea,
The opaline, the plentiful and strong,
Yet beautiful as is the rose in June.*

THE IN

THE PINES.

MY GARDEN.

*My Garden is a forest ledge
When olden forests bound;
The banks slope down to the blue lake edge,
The plunge to depths profound.*

THE WATERFALL.

*A patch of meadow upland
Reached by a mile of road,
Soothed by the voice of waters,
With birds and flowers bestowed.*
